

Indiana Department of Revenue

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 1, 2003

Contact: Cathy Henninger
317/233-3070

Kosciusko County Car Dealer Arrested for Tax Evasion

Kolin J. Young, owner of Kol's Auto Sales in Warsaw, Indiana, was arrested on June 6, 2003 on 27 counts of Failure to Remit Sales Tax and one count of Theft. All 28 counts are Class D felonies. Each Class D felony carries a maximum penalty of three years imprisonment and a $10,000.00 fine.

Young, a Kosciusko County resident, was arrested after the Indiana Department of Revenue's Criminal Investigation Division filed charges with the Kosciusko County Prosecuting Attorney's Office as a result of an investigation into the auto dealer's business practices. Young is alleged to have collected over $20,000.00 in sales tax from his customers but failed to remit those taxes to the State of Indiana.

--30--